MEET GEORGE ONUORAH

at the Book Signing of

The Political Diary of A Rising Son

Founder & CEO of Youths Int'l Inc, a non-for-profit incorporated in 2007 with the modicum of responsibility to help empower our youth by improving their self-esteem and encouraging them to stay in school and work to graduate.

He is the recipient of the many awards including U&I Award presented to him by Actor Danny Glover on behalf of the Caricorn Organization, "Star of the Queens" by the Queens Courier newspaper in 2008; Youth Service Award from You Can Go To College Committee inc and Community Advocate Award by the Corona Lion's Club. In the words of John Ploughman "Whomsoever the cap fits, let him wear it". No surprise Mr. Onuorah is recipient of three Congressional Proclamations and Awards, City Council Certificate from NY City Council and NYS senate certificate for his work in his community and the youth.

George Onuorah is a graduate of Political Science from York College of the City University New York in 1986 served as an appointed Liaison Officer for two-term Councilmember Helen Sears in the 25th NYC Council district. He has served 5 years as her appointee of CM Sears on the Neighborhood Advisory Board NAB Queens 4. Other recognition include a Certificate signed by NYS Governor George Pataki acknowledging his extending himself providing counseling after 911 to those who required mental health counseling through Project Liberty.

George Onuorah is the gift of Africa to America and a shining example of excellence...
— Sam Chekwas, Publisher

The book is full of great insights and is testament to the contributions Africans make in American society…
— Richard Dunn, Ph.D

I was moved by the family stories and the courage to tell them
— Sharon Cardioza, MD

Congratulations to George Onuorah. As the founder of the Youth Int'l Inc., he is empowering the youth by improving their self esteem and inculcating self-reliance…
— General Wesley K. Clark (ret)

Saturday, May 14th 2011; TIME: 7:00 pm

Seaburn Bookstore

33-18 Broadway, Astoria NY 11106
Tel: 347 642-3505
By N train to Broadway or by R train to Steinway

AVAILABLE WHEREVER BOOKS ARE SOLD